About Society

Catching the inspiration from what Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar did for the under privileged section of our society as well as for the nation, Barrister Rajabhai Khobragade founded Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Memorial Society on 21st Sept. 1967. The society, which grown into a big tree, now stands majestically on the sacred land known as the Deekshabhoomi, which had its unique attribute to be blessed by the solemn presence of Dr. Ambedkar on 16th Oct. 1956, wherein above 3 lakh downtroddeners were initiated to the Buddhist fold. The main objective of forming this society was to educate the dalit and people of depressed classes, realizing that there could not be any progress without education. The Chandrapur Deekshabhoomi is a spiritual and an inspiring place for all the Buddhists across the globe. In May 2014, on the occasion of 'Vaishakh Purnima', a 17.5 feet tall statue of Lord Buddha was installed on this sacred place. The society organizes two days 'Dhammachakra Anupravartan Programme' on 15th and 16th October every year at Deekshabhoomi. The present president of the society, Hon'ble Arun Ghotekar is a personality influenced and chiselled by thoughts and the ideals of Dr. Ambedkar. Under his able stewardship the society is scaling the higher peaks of accomplishment of its objectives and ideals.
