Dear Sir/Madam

“Two Days Awareness Workshop on Revised Accreditation Frame Work” is organised on 6th and 7th March 2018 by Post Graduate Teaching Departments of Gondwana University Gadchiroli.

Quality education is the key aspect of nation building. Considering the importance of quality in education system, National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) was established in 1994. NAAC provides benchmarks related to standards pertaining to infrastructure and academics of higher educational institutions and its accreditation is the symbol of the quality. A NAAC accredited institution certainly enjoys a dividend over a non-accredited educational institution. Hence by recognising the importance of the NAAC accreditation said workshop is organised with the following objectives.

4. To initiate the process of accredited and non-accredited institutes.
5. To raise awareness about the vital quality parameters of NAAC.
6. To pool the knowledge of various academicians for getting their constructive suggestions and opinions on quality improvement and substance in higher education, the need of the day.

Looking forward for your participation with IQAC co-ordinator of your college in the workshop, I am sure that your knowledge and experience will certainly grace the event and your inputs will enrich the quality consciousness of the participants. The Brochure and the Registration form is appended.

With Warm Regards.
